2020 Our Numbers

Water and Sanitation

- 261,811 people increased access to safe, clean water globally.
- 19,000 people increased access to safe, clean water after 38 handpumps were repaired.
- 9,138,925 water treatment and purification products distributed.
- 42,457 households
- 242,811 people
- 690 households with latrines constructed or supplied with construction materials.

HIV Treatment and Prevention

- 323,602 people accessed HIV services globally.
- 55,756 pregnant women were tested for HIV in their first antenatal care visit.
- 48,637 HIV-positive people were enrolled for medication (ART).
- 280,909 people tested for HIV globally.
- 2% positive (2.3%).
- 6,570 people tested positive.
- 1,752 children tested for HIV before 2 and 12-months of age.
- 29,396 HIV-positive people virally suppressed.
2020 Our Numbers

Children’s Health

307,757 children under 5-years-old accessed services globally.

- 148,431 children were treated with vitamin A supplements.
- 31,621 children were treated with de-worming medication.
- 29,968 children under one-year-old were fully immunized.
- 220,763 children measured for malnutrition by arm circumference or by weight.
  - 6% MAM
  - 3% SAM
  - 91% not moderately or severely malnourished.
- 21,687 children were treated at a facility for moderate acute malnutrition (MAM) and severe acute malnutrition (SAM).

Maternal Health

123,270 pregnant women accessed services globally.

- 73,292 pregnant women supported with first antenatal care visit.
- 13,785 pregnant women supported with fourth antenatal care visit.
- 14,764 pregnant women gave birth at a health facility.
- 14,729 pregnant women were assisted by skilled birth attendants.

Postnatal Care

- 27,791 new mothers received postpartum care.*
- 4,939 newborns received postnatal care.*

*Note: Many projects that provided postnatal care did not record newborn data.